In conclusion . . .

At 6 p.m. on a sultry June 7 the class of 1996 held its graduation exercises. Honor speaker Nick Lapworth (top) spoke on "Inner Perspectives." Salutatorian and Class President Chris LaPointe (middle) told of "Great Expectations." Valedictorian Heather Patrick (bottom) challenged her classmates with "Search for Self." Above, Mrs. Dadah pins on Heather Patrick's cap before the ceremony.

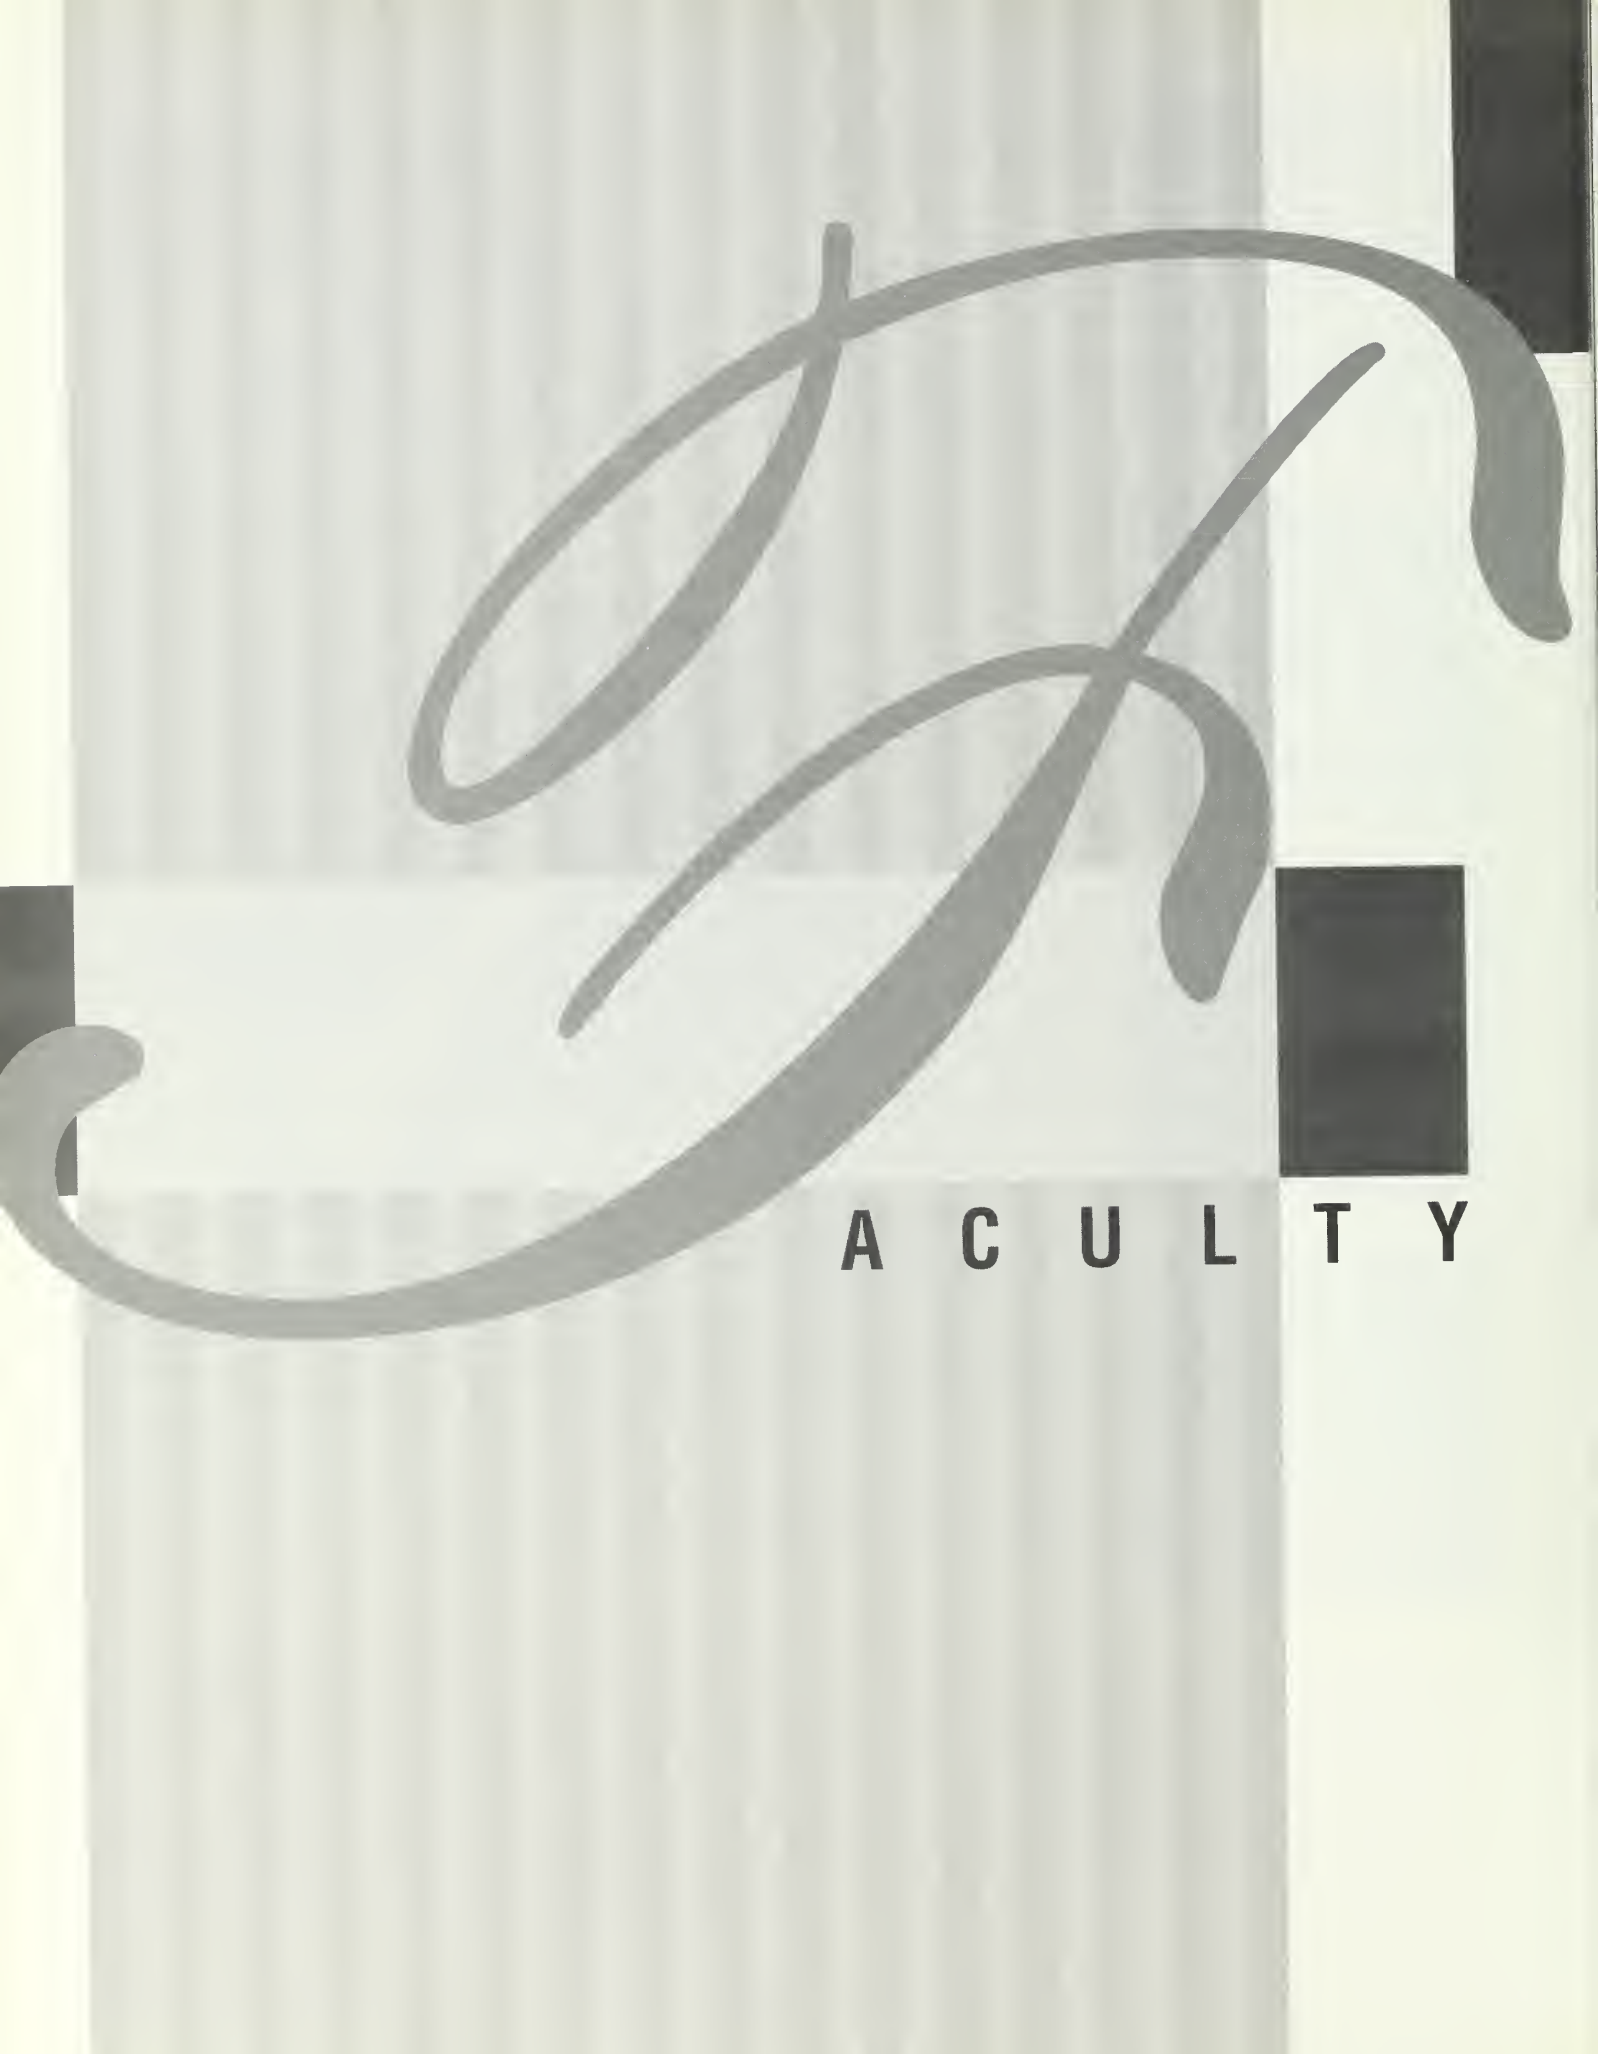

GRADS

Saving the Best for Last

Above, not a dry eye among some senior girls. Jill Polese (top) inspires the audience with "Impossible Dream" and Heather Patrick and Erin Gallagher sang "I Will Remember You." Carol Caron fixes the tassel on Joe Fagan's cap (middle). Heather Adams (bottom) receives an award from School Committee Chairperson Susan Mills.

Summer ended too soon and then it was . . .

BACK TO REALITY!!!!

PEP RALLY. The day was gray and showers drizzled outside. Finally the intercom chimed and everyone bounced from his or her seat. Students filed excitedly into the harshly lit gym and took their places on the bleachers. The second pep rally of the year. It's surprising that our class can still muster pep and spirit knowing that the rewards of open study and senior privilege will be missing next year.

"It's time to go back to school already? I must have blinked
because I missed vacation."

To make the best of a difficult school year we find. . .

HAPPINESS IN MEMORIES

LASTING FRIENDSHIPS. There are so many parts of life to be unsure of and it seems easier to remember the negative periods. This is our high school, these are the members of the class of 1997. Most of us have watched each other grow from paste eating kids into sophisticated young adults. This is our time to be friends, have fun, and make memories.

"I learned that just because
Mrs. Long doesn't teach you something doesn't mean it won't be on the chemistry quiz."

CHERISH

RUNNING ON EMPTY. Remember how good the food was when you were in elementary school? I guess a lot of things seemed better when we were in elementary school. It would be easier to face the problems of yesterday than to deal with the problems which have been presented to us this year. We were so innocent that our curiosity gave us appetite. Now we know so much we are overwhelmed.

After a year of tedious it's . . .

THREE DOWN, ONE TO GO

LIVE UP AND CONFORM. Where could I possibly be going in life? Years from now, when we're burdened with finances, our minds will have difficulty easing into the nostalgia of the "best years of our lives."

"We seem to realize when it's too late just how much we enjoy each other's company."

LIFE

WORKING FOR WHAT? Are we working to enrich our lives and secure our futures? or are we working because it's all we know. With the increasing job requisites, it's difficult to proceed with life without college. The more you deserve to relax, the harder life gets.

Battle of the Bands

An intense display of Grafton High's finest musical acts.

This year kicked off the first annual "Battle of the Bands," sponsored by the class of 1996. There was quite a competition among the six bands who performed, all ranging in sound between the thunderous metal of Caarcronolas and the poppy-punk of Sick and Tired. The bands on the bill included: Cabbage (Derek Pasoski, Adam Smith, Eric Simpson, Paul Wood); Caarcronolas (Jeremy Page, Frank Ciccone); Orange Cow Eggs (Max Swartz, Tim Broadbent, Mike Pizzimenti, Maartin van der Poll, Seth Adams); Gas Food Lodging (Matt Erhartic, Chris Principe, Sean Erhartic); Battery Cage (Jeremy Page, Tyler, Will Goulet, Gabe Shaw); and Sick and Tired (Ethan Belding, Jay Maloney, Matthew Curewitz, Andy Patrick, Jamie Webber). After an hour of great music the responsive audience chose Gas Food Lodging as the victor of this vigorous display of musical muscle.

Marriage symbolizes the intimate sharing of two lives, which must not diminish, but rather enhance the individuality of each life

BEST WISHES

Best man, Gary Jennings, toasts the bridal couple.

The Grafton High School auditorium was the setting, Thursday May 9 for the annual P & F weddings. Much planning and effort resulted in two "mock" ceremonies that were as close to the real thing as possible. Personal and Family Living is a course in which students learn about themselves and their peers as they prepare for the future. The weddings, which stress the significance of marriage, are the lightlights of the course. This year's weddings were no exception! Much of the student body attended the first wedding which featured the marriage of Andrea Demars to Will Goulet.

The second marriage featured the union of Jennifer McAvey and Greg Schonberg. Students in both classes made personal commitments to organize every aspect of the weddings, from providing the music and decorations to choosing readings, writing vows, and playing the key roles. Receptions, complete with the introduction of bridal parties, best man toasts, cutting of wedding cakes, first dances, and tosses of the bridal bouquets followed each ceremony. Special thanks goes to all classmates who worked so hard behind the scenes.

Boys Soccer

The 1995 year for the boys soccer team was a very successful one. The team went to the District Playoffs, but lost the semi-final game to Oxford. Seniors on the team were Nick Lapworth, Scott Macdonald, Matt Brophy, Chris Mackin, Mike Pizzimenti, and Mike Rudack. The team had some standout players. Matt Brophy was S.W.C.L. All-star, Central Mass. All-star, and a Telegram and Gazette Allstar. Chris Mackin and Dan Serra were also named S.W.C.L. All-stars as well as Central Mass. All-stars. Next year's team has some promising players who will hopefully lead them to success.

A Year of Rebuilding

Cross Country

The 1995-96 Cross Country team had a difficult season, losing all their meets. It was one of those "character building" times of life. Hopefully, there will be a cross-country team at Grafton in the future. Mr. Coleman and senior captain Keith Hubbard managed to recruit a team at the beginning of the season. Those who did join were certainly enthusiastic. Coach Coleman said, "It was a rebuilding year for GHS, but we were plagued with injuries."

TOUGH SEASON FOR GIRLS

"T" IS FOR TERRIFIC AND TOUGH.

The Boys' Tennis team had a terrific season, winning the Southern Worcester County League. They then went on to beat Quabog in the the District playoffs. Unfortunately, they lost the second playoff game to Westboro.

The Girls' Team, however, did not have so successful a season. In fact, they won no games, losing all 15.

BASEBALL

2nd place in SWCL

The 1996 GHS baseball team had a very successful season, winning 16 and losing only 4 in the regular season.

The team then placed second in the Southern Worcester County League and went on to the District playoffs, where on June 1 they beat Tahanto 4 to 2. They lost in the quarter final round.

Coached by Dick Coleman and Chris Martin, the team hopes to continue its winning ways in 1997.

BABY PICTURES

Heather Adams: Moment by moment, day by day, we've watched you grow in every way. You've made us proud beyond our dreams; you've lit up our lives like a rainbow beam. Your doors are all opened, your adventure begins; it's time to go and spread your wings. We love you, Dad, Mom, Ernie, Seth.

Jared Ashley: What you conceive in your mind and believe in your heart, you will achieve. Love, Mom and Dad.

Tom Batterson: I was so happy and proud the day you were born, and here it is your high school graduation. Son, you continually make me proud of you. Strive for success. The world awaits you. All my love and support, Dad.

Brian Bavosi: As always, wishing you the best of luck in all that you pursue! We'll always be behind you whether it's good times, bad times, or just late as usual! With love, Mom, Dad, Karyn, and Fletcher.

Sara Berthiaume: Our star is still rising. Sara, we are proud of you and what you are--a very unique and special person. May your many talents and ambitions spur you onward and upward into the future. May you never lose your thirst for knowledge and may all your goals be realized. Success is a journey, not a destination. Love, Mom, Dad, Laura, and S'mores.

Matt Brophy: Thanks for all the memories. You've had your game face on since day one. You'll always be our most valuable player. Love, Mom and Dad.

Lisa Candela: Congratulations, Princess. You made it. Your smile and personality have brought much happiness and love to our home. We love you and are proud of you. Mom, Dad, Traci, Skeeter.

Heather Crosby: Dad and I are very proud of you. You have grown up to be a strong and beautiful young woman. We are always here for you and wish you all the happiness in the world. All our love, Mom and Dad.

Andrea Demars: Congratulations, Andrea! As we watch you grow, it becomes more evident that the beautiful baby pictured here has also become a beautiful young woman. We love you very much and know you'll do well in life. Keep your great sense of humor. Love Mom, Dad, and Wendy.

Dan DuBois/Andrea Demars: Young love! You've come a long way. Remember when? Success and happiness is waiting.

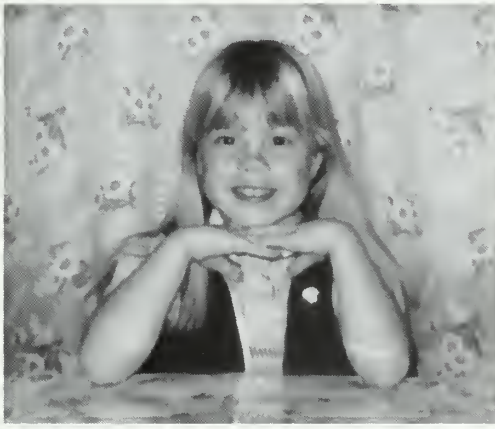

Dan DuBois: Congratulations, Dan! You are truly special. The world is waiting. Give the best you have and the best will come back to you. We love you, Mom, Dad, and Keith.

Jessica Dujnic: We love you, even though you drive us crazy. Good luck. We hope you make it. Love, Mom and Dad.

Jason Erminelli: Congratulations, Jason! We are so proud of you. You never gave up. You always strived for your personal best in everything you did. Good luck and God bless. Love, Dad, Mom, Ryan, and Pat.

Amy Eyssallenne: See, I knew you could do it! Always remember you'll have our love and support in whatever you choose to do. Make the most with what you have. We love you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Jeff.

Mary Fantini: Wishing you a world of success and happiness, white tigers and magic carpet rides. Love, Mom and Barry.

Erin Gallagher: You will always be my little girl--and Daddy will always love you.

Karen Gallagher: You are very special, and we both love you so very much. We are so proud of all your achievements. You are a real blessing to us. As this chapter in your life ends, may all you do in the future be a blessing from God to you and all you meet. We love you, Mum, Dad, and Daniel.

Lauren Gatley: You have been a source of so much happiness in our family, the best daughter a parent could ask for. We love your personality filled with kindness and sensitivity from which many can benefit. Believe in yourself--you have so much to give. Love Mom, Dad, and Jess. 101

Chris Grindle: Best of luck in your future endeavors and remember if confusion reigns, we're there to clear things up. Love, Mom and Dad.

Jennifer Hanley: Congratulations! You've done a great job and we are so proud of you. May you find as much success and happiness in the future as you've found in the past. With our love and best wishes, Dad and Mom.

Trisha Houde: When you were brought into this world, we knew you were special. There were times when there was sadness and unhappiness. You were there for the family to make us feel happiness and joy. Your love for life has brought laughter and joy to everybody that surrounds you. Good luck in the future, Buttercup. Love Mom, Dad, Jen, Stephanie, and John.

Dan Howard: Congratulations, B.B. From rug rat to rat pack to graduation day; we simply want to tell you, we're proud in every way. Love, Mom and Dad.

Keith Hubbard: We are very proud of all you have accomplished and the person you've become. We are here to support you as you work toward your goals for the future. Congratulations, Keith! Love, Dad, Mom, and Kathy.

Aida Hurley: Well, you finally made it! Congratulations! Success is on the way. We will always be there for you. Love, Mom, Dad, and Chris.

Romain Lalieux: Romain, it has been an interesting year! Thanks for the memories. Best of luck in your future. Keep in touch. Love, Mom and Dad.

Alicia Kinloch: You have changed in so many ways since you were my sweet baby. I am so proud of the beautiful, intelligent, creative, crusading young woman that you have become, that I feel truly blessed that you are my daughter. Sail on, silver girl! Much love, Mom.

Chris LaPointe: You are the last of 5, born on the day your older brother graduated from GHHS. You have caused a lot of excitement in our lives and it's been fun. You've done a great job and we are proud of you. We wish you all the best. Love, Mom and Dad.

Nicholas Lapworth: Nick, the time has come to say goodbye to my baby boy and hello to the impressive young man you've become. You've far exceeded any expectations we've had of you. Stay strong and be confident that you can accomplish anything it takes to reach your dreams. Aim high! Love, Mom, Dad, Chris, and Gwen.

Eve Lopriore: A joy in our lives. You are loved--always. Love, Mom and Dad.

Chris Mackin: you were a sweet little baby, a charming little boy, and now an outstanding young man. We are so very proud of you! You have a great head on your shoulders; keep it there and success will follow you everywhere. Congratulations and all our love. Mom and Dad.

Chris Mackin: Hey, Chris, still taxiing me around after all these years! Thanks, big brother. You're great! Love, Kyle.

Jenny McAvey: Jenny, congratulations! We're very proud of you. May good health, happiness and success be yours in the future. Love, Mom and Dad.

Kaitlin O'Connor: Kate, be happy. Enjoy a full life. Always keep your sense of humor. You've moved on to a new path of life. God bless. Love you, Mom, John, Erin, Michelle.

Jean Peterson: Seems like yesterday this picture was taken. We are very proud of you and love you very much. Love, Mom and Dad.

Jesse Ryan Plaud: from the friendliest ghost, to Robin, to a Ninja Turtle, to the Joker, to a great young graduate whose parents couldn't be prouder. You've been a superhero all your life. What's next? We love you. Congratulations! Mom and Dad.

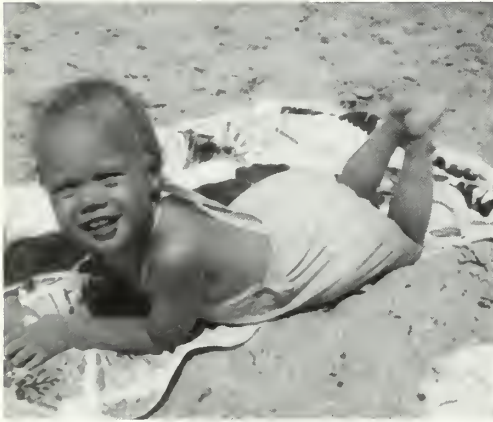

Tiffany Regan: Tiffy, we are so lucky to have you for our daughter. You have always been a delight to us. Always stay as beautiful inside and out as you are today. We are so proud and love you so much! May all your dreams come true. Love, Dad and Mom.

Mike Pizzimenti: Being the individual you are makes you special. You should feel as proud of yourself as we are of you for being who you are, what you have achieved, and what we know you will accomplish; wherever your life's journey may take you, our love and support will always be there for you; warmest and best wishes on your future endeavors. Love, Mom, Dad, Stephen, Laura.

Katie Riley: You have always brought joy and laughter into our lives. The years have passed too quickly for us! We wish you happiness and success in everything you choose to do. "Wild Woman," we love you. Mom, Dad, Heather.

Becky Rodger: You'll always be our little girl in pigtails. We love you and wish you the best that life can give you. Pursue your dreams because dreams do come true. Love always, Mom and Dad.

Greg Steven Schonberg: You seem more grown up every day I look at you. We are very proud of you in each and every way. Thanks for the wonderful years with hopes for more to come. Remember that we love you. From each and every one-good luck in everything you do. Love, Mom, Dad, & family.

John Scott: Congratulations to you and your successful high school career. As you take your next steps, we wish you all the best and continued good fortune. All our love, Mom and Dad.

Deemie Sotiropoulos: Who, upon seeing you as you were in childhood and then meeting you today, could not but agree with John Milton, that "The childhood shows the man as morning shows the day." Clearly many great days are ahead! Love, Mom and Dad.

Dan Tebo: When you become rich and famous in the motion picture industry, I will know that all of those video rentals and bowls of popcorn have finally paid off. The neat thing is that you actually remember every single one! You are certainly gifted, but still not as lucky as me. I have been blessed with the ultimate gift; a son who makes me so proud. Good luck, Dad.

Dan Tebo: Never had I dreamed that I would be blessed with a son as wonderful as you, but all my hopes and dreams came true the day you were born. You are the apple of my eye, my pride and joy. I know that you will succeed in whatever choices you make for your future. Good bless you and keep you safe, happy, and healthy. Even steven, Buddy. I love you, Mom.

Brett Warwick: We were proud of you then and we are proud of you now. Mom and Dad.

Kimberly Wright: Pipper, reach for the stars. We love you. Mom + Dad Sis, you finally made it. Love, Andrea and Heather.
Auntie PSER We love you, Amanda and Susan.

Sean Ormond: Never forget what a wonderful person you are. You have the determination and power to do whatever you want to do. We are always on your side. All our love, Mom, Dad, Kelly and Matt.
